

Consolidating Conferences

- SCS and SISO held a co-located multi-conference – ASTC/SIW in Orlando, 03/03
- SCS and SISO will hold a co-located multi-conference – ASTC/SIW in DC, 04/04
- Trying to consolidate conferences is not easy – existing ones have many constraints, most often they conflict!!
- We will continue to try...

Consolidating Organizations

- SCS and SISO are holding arm's length talks on merging
- Bill Waite's rationale, however rational, must content with cultural and existing commitments
- McLeod M&SNet is a network of co-operating independent organizations active in professionalism, research, education, and knowledge dissemination in modeling and simulation (M&S)
